

Wooden snuffbox

- Date of production before 1900
- Place of creation Jarosławiec, Hrubieszów district, Poland
- Dimensions length: 9.5 cm
- ID no. 4174/mek
- Museum The Seweryn Udziela Ethnographic Museum in Kraków
- Subjects daily life, sculpted, body
- Technique sculpture
- Material oak wood
- Object copyright The Seweryn Udziela Ethnographic Museum in Kraków
- Digital images copyright public domain
- Digitalisation RDW MIC, Małopolska's Virtual Museums project
- Tags ciało, 3D, 3D plus, domena publiczna

A container in the shape of a human hand clenched into a fist, intended for storing snuff. It is made of oak, with a rectangular hollowed-out interior, covered with a thin lid. The plate of the lid is mounted on the wrist part with a leather hinge. It is finished with a ledge, which was used to raise the lid with a fingernail. The snuffbox is finished with dark brown French polish.

Elaborated by the Seweryn Udziela Ethnographic Museum in Kraków, © all rights reserved